

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF LAFAYETTE ANNOUNCES HOLIDAY MARKET

September 1, 2008 (Lafayette, LA) – The Junior League of Lafayette will host its 15th annual holiday market, Tinsels and Treasures, September 25-27, 2008 at the Cajundome Convention Center. Tinsels and Treasures, a holiday market introduced in 1994, has been a premier social and economic event for the Junior League and the community of Lafayette. This event gives shoppers an opportunity to get a “jump start” on holiday shopping and allows the Junior League to raise funds to support community projects. To date, the Junior League has raised in excess of $2 million dollars through the success of Tinsel and Treasures. Community projects that have benefited from these funds in the past include the University Art Museum, The Family Tree, Boys and Girls Club, No Fear No Future and many others.

The market will feature 140 merchants, specializing in unique decorations, jewelry, antiques, food, toys, household and kitchen gifts, apparel, skin care and much more. General Admission tickets are $7.00 in advance, $10.00 at the door, and debuting this year, our 3-day passes are $20.00. For more information or to purchase tickets, please contact the Junior League at 337-988-2739 or visit us on the web at www.juniorleagueoflafayette.com.

Established in 1957, the Junior League of Lafayette is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.
