

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF LAFAYETTE OFFERS COOKBOOK COLLECTION

Lafayette League Collaborates with other South Louisiana Leagues

LAFAYETTE, LA (February 28, 2009) The Junior League of Lafayette is introducing a special cookbook collection that includes books from 4 area Junior Leagues. This Southern Louisiana Cookbook Collection features that latest award-winning coffee-table cookbooks from the Junior League of Lafayette, Something to Talk About, the Junior League of New Orleans, Crescent City Collection, the Junior League of Baton Rouge, Warm Welcomes, and the Junior League of Greater Covington, Roux to Do. This four-book set is being offered for a discounted price of $65.00; 40% off the combined retail price of $110.00. This Collection is only available through the Junior League of Lafayette's website, www.juniorleagueoflafayette.com, and at their Headquarters in River Ranch, at 504, Richland Ave., Lafayette, La 70508.

Sales of Junior League Cookbooks are part of the fundraising efforts coordinated by the Junior League of Lafayette to provide financial support for its mission to promote voluntarism, develop the potential of women and improve the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Through its extensive fundraising efforts, the Junior League of Lafayette has raised more than $3 million to fund and support its mission.

Established in 1957, the Junior League of Lafayette is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

For more information about Junior League Cookbooks, please visit www.juniorleagueoflafayette.com or call the Junior League of Lafayette at (337) 988-2739.

###

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Elizabeth H. Smith
Public Relations Chair
Junior League of Lafayette
(337) 257-6194
Elizabeth@eams.net