LETTER from the PRESIDENT

As a community

we are winding down from the festivities of Mardi Gras—the celebrations, king cakes, beads flying through the air, grins plastered on the faces of those shouting, “Throw me something, Mister” and floats parading through the streets—and buckling down on the plans and activities at hand.

Junior League of Lafayette Members are focusing on key projects and fundraising events, Kitchen Tour and Tinsel & Treasures. Keeping our strategic plan in the forefront. We are also planning for the future by evaluating our current projects and making recommendations for future ones. As spring is known for new growth, so it is with Junior League of Lafayette as we begin identifying prospective new Members to share our enthusiasm for the League and our community.

If you have ever considered joining Junior League of Lafayette, now is an exciting time to start your journey as we celebrate 60 years of community impact on September 30, 2017. Why join Junior League of Lafayette? To be part of an organization that makes an impact on the lives of others, as well as your own. Junior League of Lafayette membership offers opportunities for voluntarism, leadership, training, skill development, networking and lifelong friendships. Most importantly, League membership offers a chance for commitment to community service by giving back to our community and experiencing the personal fulfillment that comes from helping others. Junior League of Lafayette Members are not only women who want to improve communities, we are women with the training and skills to make it happen!

“Volunteers do not necessarily have the time; they just have the heart.”
— Elizabeth Andrew

Shortly, we will be reaching out to our treasured sponsors for commitment to existing sponsorships or to engage in a new sponsorship opportunity with our 2nd Annual Kitchen Tour or our 24th Annual Tinsel & Treasures event. These events help raise monies for our established community programs, as well as afford us the means to offer community grants and new projects. The League greatly values your contributions and continued support as we strive to improve our community. Junior League of Lafayette cannot do this alone and we thank you for your continued dedication and support. Help us make 2017 an amazing year!

With gratitude,

Julie

Girls on the Run

Building confidence.

Girls on the Run is a 10 week after-school program for first through fifth grade girls, inspiring them to define their lives on their own terms, while making new friends, building confidence and celebrating what makes them unique.

Junior League of Lafayette brings the program to the Granberry and Jackie Units of Boys & Girls Club of Acadiana. This fall, JLL began working with Woodvale Elementary as well. We sponsor the girls who participate in the program at these locations and provide a team of running coaches to work with the girls throughout the season.

After completing the program, GOTR provides a celebration 5K in Parc Sans Souci in Downtown Lafayette. However, due to the August flood, the Acadiana teams traveled to the Pennington Biomedical Research Center in Baton Rouge to participate in their 5K. It became a fun field trip day for our girls!

Before the 5K began, the girls were invited to Inspiration Village, where they painted their hair in festive colors, selected fun bandanas, and took photos with friends. Everyone warmed up with an exciting Zumba dance, then found their running buddy and place at the starting line. The girls were encouraged by friends, running buddies and even cheerleaders along the race path, and afterwards, were awarded with a medal and enjoyed jambalaya.

We are so proud of our girls who worked hard in the fall and completed their 5K. As we are currently in our spring training, we hope you'll join us in cheering our girls on at Parc Sans Souci May 7! If you would like to learn more about Girls on the Run, please visit www.girlsontherun.org.

Filling lives with love

Collaborative Opportunity Grants Committee

In February, our Collaborative Opportunity Grants committee assisted more than 150 foster children in need through the Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children of South Louisiana (CASA of SoLA).

Together with the help of CASA volunteers, the group collected books, stuffed animals, journals, notes of inspiration and other meaningful items to fill suitcases that the children can take with them as they journey between homes. "Their transition can oftentimes be tough, and the suitcases are a safe spot for personal, cherished items that help maintain an important sense of self as they enter new homes and deal with change," stated Louise Lambert, Collaborative Opportunity Grants Chair.

CASA of SoLA is a powerful voice for abused and neglected children in foster care within Lafayette, Acadia and Vermilion Parishes. Since 2008, they have placed children in permanent safe homes, utilizing community volunteers to speak up for the best interest of children. For more information, and to see beautiful stories of those who have been helped over the years, visit casaofsola.org.

HAVE NO FEAR? Have no future.

By NFNF Committee

Did you know that the U.S. Department of Transportation reports the average time your eyes are off the road while texting is five seconds?

When driving at 55 mph, that's enough time to cover the length of a football field, blindfolded!

More than a decade ago, Junior League of Lafayette recognized an opportunity to educate youth on the risks and consequences of distracted driving. With the unwavering support of our community partners, NO FEAR NO FUTURE was born. To date, over 10,000 students have participated in this life-changing event. In past years, the program focused solely on the exposing high school teens to the realities of drinking and driving. Today, the program has expanded to include all forms of distraction – in particular, texting, which is now all too frequent. Texting actually poses a triple threat because it combines three types of distraction – visual, manual and cognitive. In order to text, you're taking your eyes off the road, your hands off the wheel, and your mind off the task of driving.

In October, JLL hosted over 300 Lafayette Parish high school freshmen during the program at the Heymann Center in Lafayette. The idea is to educate participants as they enter high school and begin going to dances, football games, parties and most importantly, getting into cars with peers. The hope is that the earlier teens are exposed to the risks, the better choices they will make. The fall NFNF assembly is planned during homecoming season, where there is a higher probability of teen drivers being in distracted driving situations, much like the spring program is around the same time as Prom. Participants see a mock trial of a defendant who was drinking and driving and the process of sentencing. Attendees also experience a mock funeral during which a League Member reads the obituary of the person killed by impaired or distracted driving in this scenario. The teens then watch the previous year's NFNF mock crash with live speakers.

The next NO FEAR NO FUTURE event will take place at Lafayette High School, April 6-7, 2017. For more information, visit our Programs link at www.juniorleagueoflafayette.com.

MEMBER PROFILE

Rachel Swan, No Fear No Future Chair

1. When did you join Junior League of Lafayette and why?

In 2012 I had recently become a stay-at-home mom and wanted to do something that was for me, but also help those around me. I'm used to always staying busy with multiple things on my plate and Junior League seemed like a great fit to fill that need. I'm also originally from Baton Rouge and only knew a handful of people at the time and felt this would be a wonderful opportunity to get out there. I met one of my now very best friends through the League.

2. What do you love most about serving as Chair of NFNF?

NFNF was the community project that I chose as a provisional and from the moment I saw that video, to walking onto the site of the crash and experiencing all NFNF has to offer, I was hooked. I was immensely moved at how those around me were impacted and brought together. To be able to lead such an empowering and life-changing event is truly something I will hold dear for the rest of my life. I'm working with some amazing women, and I'm so grateful for them.

3. How have your previous placements prepared you for this role?

This is my third year on NFNF and I have worked under two amazing ladies. Each of them lead with such passion – and where there is passion there is drive. I believe in this cause and will do whatever it takes to make it be a success.

4. What did you hope to accomplish with NFNF this year?

My hope was to provide my committee with a rewarding experience and to educate the high school students of Lafayette on the dangers of distracted driving. I want everyone who experiences NFNF this year to feel empowered and passionate about this cause – and to think twice about texting in the car, or having a drink and getting behind the wheel.

5. What's something our members and community may not know about NFNF?

The students that we pick to be part of the mock crash come from all walks of life and participate in various activities for the two days they come together. The bond that forms between these kids because of the experience that NFNF provides them is probably one of my favorite things about this program. It fits perfectly with our mission statement. We are truly improving the community and bringing it together.

"We knew that more students needed to hear the message of impaired and distracted driving," explained Rachel Swan, NFNF Chair. "So we now reach a wider audience by hosting an assembly in the fall, while still doing the mock crash in the spring. It's always compelling to see the kids' reactions and it really feels like this makes a lasting impression on their lives."

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

#WhyJLL

We asked our Board of Directors:
“Why do you JLL?”

Here are their inspirational answers.

#whyJLL: I joined to give back to the community that I love and in turn, I gained so much more...a better understanding of the nonprofit world, acquired new skill sets through JLL training and best of all, created lifelong friendships. I still JLL after 13 years because I truly believe that JLL improves our community and develops great volunteers.

ALISON ALLEMAN

#whyJLL: Because I believe in giving of my time to help empower women to make a difference in our community.

CARLEE ALM-LABAR

#whyJLL: Over 12 years ago, I joined Junior League of Lafayette when a co-worker said that I needed to because I have a big heart. I have continued to volunteer year after year due to the impact the League has on our community.

JULIE BROUSSARD

#whyJLL: I initially joined to meet people and learn about the service opportunities in my community. I love seeing the fruit of our efforts and the feeling of empowerment. With my tenure as an active coming to a close, I cherish the skills, contacts and confidence that I have been given to make a difference. Junior League of Lafayette has provided me with lasting friendships that go so far beyond meetings and committees.

AIMEE COTTER

#whyJLL: I joined Junior League to help improve my community. However, I didn't realize the added benefit of the dear friendships that I've made along the way.

CORINNE SPRAGUE

#whyJLL: I joined because I wanted to become a better community volunteer and enrich the community I love, work, and play with my family. Along the way, I made some of the dearest friendships my heart could hold. JLL has given (and continues to give) me more than I can repay - training, inspiration, friendships and so much more!

MARY COURVILLE

#whyJLL: JLL has provided me with numerous opportunities to further develop my leadership skills while working to better our community. Along the way I've gained invaluable friendships and thoroughly enjoy the time I spend with like-minded women with such willingness to grow and make a difference.

ANGELA CRING

#whyJLL: JLL means friendship, leadership, learning, laughing, and making a difference.

MELANIE FOWLER

#whyJLL: Because I want to make a difference in my community and I want to be in the company of compassionate and capable women who want to do the same. Because an integral part of our Mission is that we empower our members with training and education to become advocates and leaders in order to impact our community and I want to do just that. And because words such as community, impact, voluntarism, and women mean something to me, I JLL.

MELISSA MAEKER

#whyJLL: JLL is my training field, my huddle, my coach and my teammates rolled into my real-world game. The skills, the friendships and the new perspectives I've gained boost my confidence in working towards big goals I've set in making our community the best it can be. I look forward to the day my daughter joins the team, too.

HANNAH MASON

#whyJLL: Helping to lift up our community and receiving invaluable volunteer training at the same time. Can't get any better in my book.

KATHERINE MCCORMICK

#whyJLL: My year of service as Sustaining Advisor to the Board has been full of learning, growth and inspiration; everyone teaches and supports each other with the understanding that we are a team and working together can make things happen more easily and professionally.

LISE ANNE SLATTEN

PROVISIONAL UPDATE

Preparations for our Provisional Project are in full swing! The Read, Feed and Seed project is being implemented at Bridge Ministry on Friday afternoons with approximately 35-40 elementary school-aged children. There are three important parts to the project, each representing its title:

READ — The children will create their own recipes and cookbooks that they can take home. Our goal is to focus nutrition education, encourage literacy and engage the children in connecting the food they are growing with food they can eat.

FEED — The final portion of the project will incorporate the children’s knowledge of growing their own food, with the nutritional education of developing their own recipes, by giving them an opportunity to cook their foods and feed each other.

SEED — JLL Provisionals will introduce the curriculum of how to grow food within containers. Our goal is to teach kids the importance of food sustainability and how to grow their own products.

We are excited about the potential impact of this spring project and look forward to reporting results after its completion.

COOKBOOK SPOTLIGHT

Talk About Good Turns 50!

By Cookbook Committee

Junior League of Lafayette has something to celebrate — our original cookbook, Talk About Good!, turns 50 this year! Created by our members in 1967, the distinctly striped yellow and white cookbook takes you on a journey through south Louisiana's traditions, cultural heritage and culinary artistries of Cajun food. The book is filled with over 1,200 cross-indexed personal recipes from League Members, their families and friends.

The original copy sold for $3.75 and most Members did not think they were going to be able to sell their required 10 books per Member. Now fifty years later, Talk About Good! is in its 32nd printing, with just under 800,000 books sold.

Talk About Good! set the foundation for Junior League of Lafayette to create three additional cookbooks: Talk About Good II, Tell Me More and Something To Talk About.

In total, these books have brought in net profits of more than $1,200,000!

While Talk About Good! has undergone many printings and upgrades throughout the years, the original, beloved recipes have always remained the same. The book retails for $21.95 and can be purchased through Junior League of Lafayette's website, or throughout Acadiana at our retail partners. Check out two of our tried and true recipes to the right!

KING RANCH CASSEROLE

Talk About Good Page 329

- 1 hen, cooked and deboned
- 2 cups grated American cheese
- 1 dozen tortillas cut fine
- 1 onion, cut fine
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 1 cup chicken broth from hen
- ½ cup Rotel tomatoes

Place one layer of chicken, ½ of the sauce (combine last four ingredients for sauce), ½ of the tortillas and ½ of the onion and cheese in casserole and repeat for second layer with cheese on top. Bake 1 hour at 350 degrees.

SUMMER SLIMMER (GAZPACHO)

Talk About Good Page 192

- 1 cup peeled tomatoes
- ½ c. celery
- ½ c. cucumbers
- ½ c. green pepper
- ⅓ c. snipped parsley
- 1 small clove garlic
- 2-3 Tbsp. wine vinegar
- 2 Tbsp. olive oil
- 1 tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. freshly ground pepper
- ½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 2-2 ½ c. V-8 juice

All vegetables should be very finely chopped or minced. Combine all ingredients in stainless steel or glass bowl. Cover and chill thoroughly for four hours or overnight. Serve in chilled bowls. I usually double this recipe (which serves 6-8) for it will keep well for several days.

Happy Anniversary, Talk About Good!
